

CRISTO REY

ORLANDO HIGH SCHOOL

May 17, 2022

Dear Parents/Caregivers,

Soon, 5th and 6th graders at Holy Redeemer will hear a presentation about a new Catholic high school that, if approved, will open in Orlando: Cristo Rey. The targeted opening is 2024, when current 6th graders would be eligible to be admitted in the first class of 9th graders.

This high school is part of a National Network of 38 high schools around the country that prepare students for college and a career. Unique to Cristo Rey, is that students attend college prep classes four days a week and then have a professional job one day a week. The money the student earns from their work experience pays their tuition, making tuition no more than $2,000 per year. Not only does the job program keep tuition affordable, but students gain confidence, real-world work experience, and a network of adults who can offer advice and support beyond high school for their future careers.
