IMPORTANT DISCLOSURE REGARDING BACKGROUND REPORTS FROM THE PSP Online Service

In connection with your application for employment with Argos USA Corporation ("Prospective Employer"), Prospective Employer, its employees, agents or contractors may obtain one or more reports regarding your driving, and safety inspection history from the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA).

When the application for employment is submitted in person, if the Prospective Employer uses any information it obtains from FMCSA in a decision to not hire you or to make any other adverse employment decision regarding you, the Prospective Employer will provide you with a copy of the report upon which its decision was based and a written summary of your rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act before taking any final adverse action. If any final adverse action is taken against you based upon your driving history or safety report, the Prospective Employer will notify you that the action has been taken and that the action was based in part or in whole on this report.

When the application for employment is submitted by mail, telephone, computer, or other similar means, if the Prospective Employer uses any information it obtains from FMCSA in a decision to not hire you or to make any other adverse employment decision regarding you, the Prospective Employer must provide you within three business days of taking adverse action oral, written or electronic notification: that adverse action has been taken based in whole or in part on information obtained from FMCSA; the name, address, and the toll free telephone number of FMCSA; that the FMCSA did not make the decision to take the adverse action and is unable to provide you the specific reasons why the adverse action was taken; and that you may, upon providing proper identification, request a free copy of the report and may dispute with the FMCSA the accuracy or completeness of any information or report. If you request a copy of a driver record from the Prospective Employer who procured the report, then, within 3 business days of receiving your request, together with proper identification, the Prospective Employer must send or provide to you a copy of your report and a summary of your rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

Neither the Prospective Employer nor the FMCSA contractor supplying the crash and safety information has the capability to correct any safety data that appears to be incorrect. You may challenge the accuracy of the data by submitting a request to <https://dataqs.fmcsa.dot.gov>. If you challenge crash or inspection information reported by a State, FMCSA cannot change or correct this data. Your request will be forwarded by the DataQs system to the appropriate State for adjudication.

Any crash or inspection in which you were involved will display on your PSP report. Since the PSP report does not report, or assign, or imply fault, it will include all Commercial Motor Vehicle (CMV) crashes where you were a driver or co-driver and where those crashes were reported to FMCSA, regardless of fault. Similarly, all inspections, with or without violations, appear on the PSP report. State citations associated with Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations (FMCSR) violations that have been adjudicated by a court of law will also appear, and remain, on a PSP report.

The Prospective Employer cannot obtain background reports from FMCSA without your authorization.

AUTHORIZATION

If you agree that the Prospective Employer may obtain such background reports, please read the following and sign below:

I authorize Argos USA Corporation ("Prospective Employer") to access the FMCSA Pre-Employment Screening Program (PSP) system to seek information regarding my commercial driving safety record and information regarding my safety inspection history. I understand that I am authorizing the release of safety performance information including crash data from the previous five (5) years and inspection history from the previous three (3) years. I understand and acknowledge that this release of information may assist the Prospective Employer to make a determination regarding my suitability as an employee.

I further understand that neither the Prospective Employer nor the FMCSA contractor supplying the crash and safety information has the capability to correct any safety data that appears to be incorrect. I understand I may challenge the accuracy of the data by submitting a request to <https://dataqs.fmcsa.dot.gov>. If I challenge crash or inspection information reported by a State, FMCSA cannot change or correct this data. I understand my request will be forwarded by the DataQs system to the appropriate State for adjudication.

I understand that any crash or inspection in which I was involved will display on my PSP report. Since the PSP report does not report, or assign, or imply fault, I acknowledge it will include all CMV crashes where I was a driver or co-driver and where those crashes were reported to FMCSA, regardless of fault. Similarly, I understand all inspections, with or without violations, will appear on my PSP report, and State citations associated with FMCSR violations that have been adjudicated by a court of law will also appear, and remain, on my PSP report. I have read the above Disclosure Regarding Background Reports provided to me by Prospective Employer and I understand that if I sign this Disclosure and Authorization, Prospective Employer may obtain a report of my crash and inspection history. I hereby authorize Prospective Employer and its employees, authorized agents, and/or affiliates to obtain the information authorized above.

Consent for Limited Queries of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA)
Drug and Alcohol Clearinghouse

I hereby provide consent to Argos USA Corporation to conduct a limited query of the FMCSA Commercial Driver's License Drug and Alcohol Clearinghouse to determine whether drug or alcohol violation information about me exists in the Clearinghouse. I understand this consent shall remain on file and shall serve as ongoing consent for Argos USA Corporation to conduct multiple limited queries of the Clearinghouse at any time during my employment or contract period without asking me for additional consent.

I understand that if I refuse to provide consent for Argos USA Corporation to conduct a limited query of the Clearinghouse, Argos USA Corporation is required to prohibit me from performing safety-sensitive functions, including operating a commercial motor vehicle.

I understand that if the limited query conducted by Argos USA Corporation indicates that drug or alcohol information exists about me in the Clearinghouse, the FMCSA will not disclose that information to Argos USA Corporation unless I give additional specific consent within the Clearinghouse. However, I understand that Argos USA Corporation will be required to conduct a full query of the Clearinghouse within 24 hours after a limited query indicates that drug or alcohol information exists and that if I do not grant consent within the Clearinghouse for that full query I will be removed from performing safety-sensitive functions, including operating a commercial motor vehicle.

Position: Ready Mix Truck Driver:

The physical demands described here are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform the essential functions of this job. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

This would be considered moderately strenuous work. There are various postures, movements, lifting, carrying, and push/pull requirements are as follows:

- a) There is approximately four hours per day of sitting. This would be considered driving to and from jobsite to plant, waiting to be loaded at plant, and lunches. There is approximately four to five hours per day required standing. This would be unloading concrete, cleaning standing on ladder washing charging hopper and fins or adding admixtures. (The hour calculation is based on a ten hour work day, which could be longer or shorter based on customer demand).
- b) The driver must be able to lift the desired weights at the frequency designated. For example, the following items are part of the job task requirements: rubber hose, map book, delivery tickets, 1.5# bags of fiber mesh, empty three gallon pails at a weight of approximately 5 pounds, and thirty pounds full and the frequency demand is eleven to thirty three percent of the time. Empty five gallon pails weigh approximately seven pounds and approximately fifty pounds full. Metal chutes weigh between fifty-one and seventy-five pounds, and the frequency rate is eleven to thirty three percent of the time. Ninety-four pounds of Portland cement needs to be lifted on rare occasion of one to ten percent frequency.
- c) The push/pull demand for the ready-mix driver consists of using handles to pull oneself into and out of truck. Pulling oneself up ladder, the force will vary depending on weight and technique. The driver must push/pull the door of mixer. There is also push/pull in operating shift/clutch operation as well as operating controls at a height of seventy-one inches. The driver must regularly push/pull an average of 9.9 pounds of force at 77 1/2" in height. The driver must also push/pull main chute at rear of truck with an average of 56.7 lb. of pull and 58.9 lb. of push force.

There are also regular push/pull forces in hooking as many as four chutes and using push/pull in side to side movements for proper positioning. In addition, there are regular push/pull movements in hooking and unhooking bungee cords holding chutes, and using chute scraper to pull concrete down chutes and cleaning truck with brushes.

There are positional requirements of the ready-mix driver that happen frequently. Neck flexion and neck rotation are frequent in order to add ingredients, read map book, hooking chutes, observation while driving, operations of lever of concrete flow, reversing truck on jobsites.

There is neck-bending that happens occasionally when observing concrete flow and cleaning truck. Trunk bending is a frequent physical demand for driving, filling water tank, adding additional ingredients, fastening chutes and cleaning underside of truck. There is frequent twisting in the observation of work. There is occasional squatting on low level cleaning and position third chute at times. Climbing of an eight rung ladder, getting in and out of the truck, climbing onto truck while filling water tank is a frequent physical demand of a ready-mix driver. There is continuous reaching out (shoulder height) and grasping in climbing, driving, attaching and retrieving chutes, operating controls, radio, truck status signaling system, grasping brush while cleaning, trigger nozzle on hose, and controlling flow of concrete. There is also frequent reaching up and finger manipulation in the operation of levers to control concrete, buttons to control truck, driving, squeeze trigger on hose, pulling ladder down, climbing, and putting chutes on.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment - or to take another adverse action against you - must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your "file disclosure"). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - ◆ a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - ◆ you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - ◆ your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - ◆ you are on public assistance;
 - ◆ you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need - usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited "prescreened" offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1-888-567-8688).

- The following FCRA right applies with respect to nationwide consumer reporting agencies:

CONSUMERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO OBTAIN A SECURITY FREEZE

You have a right to place a "security freeze" on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization. The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a security freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit.

As an alternative to a security freeze, you have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on your credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting 7 years.

A security freeze does not apply to a person or entity, or its affiliates, or collection agencies acting on behalf of the person or entity, with which you have an existing account that requests information in your credit report for the purposes of reviewing or collecting the account. Reviewing the account includes activities related to account maintenance, monitoring, credit line increases, and account upgrades and enhancements.

- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights, contact:
