DISCLOSURE FOR CONSUMER REPORTS

In connection with your employment or owner-operator (independent contractor) application, ProDrivers may order one or more consumer report(s) (commonly known as "background reports" or "background checks") about you from one or more consumer reporting agencies. If you are hired or engaged as an owner-operator (independent contractor), additional consumer reports may be obtained in connection with and throughout your employment for employment purposes or for the legitimate business purpose of evaluating you as an owner-operator.

To the extent allowed by law, the consumer reports may include information concerning your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, mode of living, drug and alcohol test results, motor vehicle records, driving records, criminal history, public court records, employment history (including names and dates of previous employers, reason for termination of employment, work experience, and accidents), social security number validation, education, licensure, or verification of other information supplied by you. Such reports may be obtained from private and public record sources, including sanctions databases, CDLIS (including but not limited to CDLIS Central Site, CDLIS Master Pointer Record data and your driver record from the jurisdiction identified in the CDLIS data, in accordance with applicable state law and the Driver Privacy Protection Act), former employers, public court records, and federal, state, and other government agencies that maintain such records.

IMPORTANT DISCLOSURE REGARDING BACKGROUND REPORTS FROM THE PSP Online Service

In connection with your application for employment with ProDrivers ("Prospective Employer"), Prospective Employer, its employees, agents or contractors may obtain one or more reports regarding your driving, and safety inspection history from the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA).

When the application for employment is submitted in person, if the Prospective Employer uses any information it obtains from FMCSA in a decision to not hire you or to make any other adverse employment decision regarding you, the Prospective Employer will provide you with a copy of the report upon which its decision was based and a written summary of your rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act before taking any final adverse action. If any final adverse action is taken against you based upon your driving history or safety report, the Prospective Employer will notify you that the action has been taken and that the action was based in part or in whole on this report.

When the application for employment is submitted by mail, telephone, computer, or other similar means, if the Prospective Employer uses any information it obtains from FMCSA in a decision to not hire you or to make any other adverse employment decision regarding you, the Prospective Employer must provide you within three business days of taking adverse action oral, written or electronic notification: that adverse action has been taken based in whole or in part on information obtained from FMCSA; the name, address, and the toll free telephone number of FMCSA; that the FMCSA did not make the decision to take the adverse action and is unable to provide you the specific reasons why the adverse action was taken; and that you may, upon providing proper identification, request a free copy of the report and may dispute with the FMCSA the accuracy or completeness of any information or report. If you request a copy of a driver record from the Prospective Employer who procured the report, then, within 3 business days of receiving your request, together with proper identification, the Prospective Employer must send or provide to you a copy of your report and a summary of your rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

Neither the Prospective Employer nor the FMCSA contractor supplying the crash and safety information has the capability to correct any safety data that appears to be incorrect. You may challenge the accuracy of the data by submitting a request to <https://dataqs.fmcsa.dot.gov>. If you challenge crash or inspection information reported by a State, FMCSA cannot change or correct this data. Your request will be forwarded by the DataQs system to the appropriate State for adjudication.

Any crash or inspection in which you were involved will display on your PSP report. Since the PSP report does not report, or assign, or imply fault, it will include all Commercial Motor Vehicle (CMV) crashes where you were a driver or co-driver and where those crashes were reported to FMCSA, regardless of fault. Similarly, all inspections, with or without violations, appear on the PSP report. State citations associated with Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations (FMCSR) violations that have been adjudicated by a court of law will also appear, and remain, on a PSP report.

The Prospective Employer cannot obtain background reports from FMCSA without your authorization.

AUTHORIZATION

If you agree that the Prospective Employer may obtain such background reports, please read the following and sign below:

I authorize ProDrivers ("Prospective Employer") to access the FMCSA Pre-Employment Screening Program (PSP) system to seek information regarding my commercial driving safety record and information regarding my safety inspection history. I understand that I am authorizing the release of safety performance information including crash data from the previous five (5) years and inspection history from the previous three (3) years. I understand and acknowledge that this release of information may assist the Prospective Employer to make a determination regarding my suitability as an employee.

I further understand that neither the Prospective Employer nor the FMCSA contractor supplying the crash and safety information has the capability to correct any safety data that appears to be incorrect. I understand I may challenge the accuracy of the data by submitting a request to <https://dataqs.fmcsa.dot.gov>. If I challenge crash or inspection information reported by a State, FMCSA cannot change or correct this data. I understand my request will be forwarded by the DataQs system to the appropriate State for adjudication.

I understand that any crash or inspection in which I was involved will display on my PSP report. Since the PSP report does not report, or assign, or imply fault, I acknowledge it will include all CMV crashes where I was a driver or co-driver and where those crashes were reported to FMCSA, regardless of fault. Similarly, I understand all inspections, with or without violations, will appear on my PSP report, and State citations associated with FMCSR violations that have been adjudicated by a court of law will also appear, and remain, on my PSP report. I have read the above Disclosure Regarding Background Reports provided to me by Prospective Employer and I understand that if I sign this Disclosure and Authorization, Prospective Employer may obtain a report of my crash and inspection history. I hereby authorize Prospective Employer and its employees, authorized agents, and/or affiliates to obtain the information authorized above.

Consent for Limited Queries of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA)
Drug and Alcohol Clearinghouse

I hereby provide consent to ProDrivers to conduct a limited query of the FMCSA Commercial Driver's License Drug and Alcohol Clearinghouse to determine whether drug or alcohol violation information about me exists in the Clearinghouse. I understand this consent shall remain on file and shall serve as ongoing consent for ProDrivers to conduct multiple limited queries of the Clearinghouse at any time during my employment or contract period without asking me for additional consent.

I understand that if I refuse to provide consent for ProDrivers to conduct a limited query of the Clearinghouse, ProDrivers is required to prohibit me from performing safety-sensitive functions, including operating a commercial motor vehicle.

I understand that if the limited query conducted by ProDrivers indicates that drug or alcohol information exists about me in the Clearinghouse, the FMCSA will not disclose that information to ProDrivers unless I give additional specific consent within the Clearinghouse. However, I understand that ProDrivers will be required to conduct a full query of the Clearinghouse within 24 hours after a limited query indicates that drug or alcohol information exists and that if I do not grant consent within the Clearinghouse for that full query I will be removed from performing safety-sensitive functions, including operating a commercial motor vehicle.

- 15 U.S.C. 1681j provides for the right to obtain a free copy of a consumer report on you from the consumer reporting agency which prepared your background report, under various circumstances, including but not limited to where you receive notice that an adverse action has been taken toward you based on the consumer report. In that instance, Section 1681j provides a right to a free copy of the report provided that you make the request within 60 days of the date that you received notice of the adverse action.
- 15 U.S.C. 1681i provides for the right to dispute, with a consumer reporting agency the accuracy or completeness of any information in a consumer report furnished by the agency.

INVESTIGATIVE CONSUMER REPORT DISCLOSURE

ProDrivers ("Company") will order an 'investigative consumer report' concerning you for employment purposes or, if you are an owner-operator (independent contractor), for the legitimate business purpose of evaluating your suitability for an independent contractor engagement pursuant to your written instructions.

An 'investigative consumer report' is defined as a consumer report or portion thereof in which information on a consumer's character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living is obtained through personal interviews with neighbors, friends, or associates of the consumer reported on or with others with whom he is acquainted or who may have knowledge concerning any such items of information.

The investigative consumer report the Company will order concerning you will contain information concerning your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living, obtained through personal interviews.

You have the right to request the additional disclosures provided for under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. 1681d(b), which reads as follows:

Any person who procures or causes to be prepared an investigative consumer report on any consumer shall, upon written request made by the consumer within a reasonable period of time after the receipt by him of the disclosure required by subsection (a)(1) of this section, make a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of the investigation requested. This disclosure shall be made in a writing mailed, or otherwise delivered, to the consumer not later than five days after the date on which the request for such disclosure was received from the consumer or such report was first requested, whichever is the later.

At present, the specific 'nature and scope' of the investigative consumer report the Company may request is as follows: Employment Verifications, Motor Vehicle Reports, CDLIS, Criminal Records, and PSP. The report(s) will be requested from the following:

A copy of Article 23-A of the Correction Law is provided in connection herewith.

WASHINGTON STATE: If you submit a written request to the Company, you have the right to a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report the Company ordered about you. You are entitled to this disclosure within five business days after the date your request is received or we ordered the report, whichever is later. You also have the right to request a written summary of your rights under the Washington Fair Credit Reporting Act.

Acknowledgments and Releases

1. Equal Employment Opportunity Statement: ProDrivers is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of ProDrivers to offer all employees and applicants for employment equal opportunity without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex, disability, marital status, veteran status or any other protected status. This policy covers all aspects of the employment relationship. Employment decisions, subject to the legitimate business requirements of ProDrivers are based solely on the individual's qualifications, merit, and performance. Applicant agrees to report any discrimination immediately to the Branch Management and, if an immediate satisfactory resolution of the matter does not occur, Applicant agrees to notify in writing the CEO, 1845 Satellite Blvd, Suite 300, Duluth, GA 30097.
 2. Harassment: Any form of harassment, including sexual harassment, or harassment based on race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex, disability, marital status, membership or application for membership in the armed forces, or any other group protected by state or local law is strictly prohibited and will not be condoned. Strict and immediate discipline, up to and including termination, will be enforced. Applicant should not participate in such conduct and further agrees to immediately report any such conduct to ProDrivers.
 3. Employment: Employment through ProDrivers is contingent upon availability of jobs; Applicant's continued ability to perform the essential functions of the positions for which qualified, with or without reasonable accommodation; the results of Applicant's employment verifications and Applicant's acceptance and compliance with ProDrivers' policies.
 4. Reference and Consumer Report Authorization: Applicant authorizes ProDrivers, and any person or organizations acting under the instructions of ProDrivers, to make a confidential background check and investigate Applicant's previous employment history, education, and otherwise to investigate fully Applicant's suitability for employment, including contacting a credit bureau or agency, or other consumer reporting agency when necessary. Applicant authorizes and requests that current and all former employers and any person(s) Applicant has listed furnish ProDrivers with information about their employment record, including a statement of the reason for the termination of their employment. Applicant hereby releases them and ProDrivers from all liability and responsibility arising from any information provided. Applicant understands that certain reports that ProDrivers receives may be "consumer reports" or "investigative consumer reports" and that Applicant may be entitled under federal law to make a written request to receive disclosure of same. Applicant further understands that the results of any such investigation may be disclosed to ProDrivers personnel involved in the employment decision and hereby consents to such disclosure. Applicant releases ProDrivers and its employees and agents from any liability and responsibility arising from same.
- NOTE: Applicant has the right to review information obtained from previous employers, to correct errors in that information and rebut perceived incorrect information.
5. Release of Criminal Records: Applicant hereby authorizes ProDrivers to examine any and all criminal records, which maybe on file in any county of any state. In doing so, Applicant understands that he/she is waiving all rights to confidentiality concerning his/her criminal history and any convictions.
 6. Substance Abuse Screening Consent: The policy of ProDrivers is to maintain a drug and alcohol-free work environment that is safe and productive for employees and others having business with ProDrivers. To meet these objectives, Applicant agrees to comply with ProDrivers' drug and alcohol-free workplace policy as a condition of employment, and understands that any offer of employment with ProDrivers is contingent upon passing any required physical examinations. Applicant further agrees to submit to a substance abuse screening either pre-employment (but after a conditional job offer), for cause, random, post-accident (which occurs while performing services for ProDrivers) or upon return to duty. Applicant further understands that the purpose of this analysis is to determine or rule out the presence of alcohol, non-prescribed drugs or prohibited controlled substances. Applicant hereby consents to this request for and agrees to participate in the testing program. Applicant understands that a positive test or refusal to submit to such screening will be cause for refusal of employment, or, if employed, termination of employment.
 7. Consent to Release Information: Applicant understands that to be assigned or considered for employment by one or more clients of ProDrivers, may require that ProDrivers release employment related documents to those clients. By Applicant's signature below, Applicant authorizes ProDrivers to release the results of employment verifications, drug screens, pre-employment testing, criminal background checks, credit checks, motor vehicle record checks, and/or DOT medical certification or any other employment related documents to the client(s) to whom Applicant may be assigned or by whom Applicant may be considered for employment. By Applicant's signature below, Applicant further releases ProDrivers from any responsibility and liability, which may result from the release of this information.

8. Expectations: ProDrivers makes no promises, covenants, or undertakings other than those expressly set forth herein and in manuals. These agreements supersede all prior agreements and understandings between the Applicant and ProDrivers with respect to the subject matter contained therein. These agreements may be amended with respect to the Applicant only by a written instrument duly executed by the Applicant and ProDrivers. However, ProDrivers reserves the right to change these policies at any time with or without notice in conjunction with ProDrivers' policy changes.
9. Employment-at-Will Acknowledgment: In consideration of employment, Applicant agrees to comply with the policies, rules, regulations, and procedures of ProDrivers. Applicant further understands that there is no Contract of Employment for a specific duration with ProDrivers. An Employment-at-Will relationship exists between ProDrivers and the Applicant with both parties having the right to terminate the employment relationship at any time, for any reason, with or without notice or cause.
10. Attestation to Truth and Honesty: This certifies that this application was completed by me, and that all entries on it and information provided in it are true, correct and complete to the best of my knowledge. Falsifying any portion of this application, providing inaccurate information and/or withholding relevant information will be cause for refusal of employment, or if employed, termination of employment.

I hereby verify that I have read and fully understand the above statements regarding ProDrivers' policies and procedures and agree to same. I agree to abide by these policies as a condition of my employment with ProDrivers.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

Para informacion en espanol, visite www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore o escribe a la Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment - or to take another adverse action against you - must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your "file disclosure"). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - ◆ a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - ◆ you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - ◆ your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - ◆ you are on public assistance;
 - ◆ you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need - usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited "prescreened" offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-567-8688.

- The following FCRA right applies with respect to nationwide consumer reporting agencies:

CONSUMERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO OBTAIN A SECURITY FREEZE

You have a right to place a "security freeze" on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization. The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a security freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit.

As an alternative to a security freeze, you have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on your credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting 7 years.

A security freeze does not apply to a person or entity, or its affiliates, or collection agencies acting on behalf of the person or entity, with which you have an existing account that requests information in your credit report for the purposes of reviewing or collecting the account. Reviewing the account includes activities related to account maintenance, monitoring, credit line increases, and account upgrades and enhancements.

- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights, contact:
